

Australian Container Leasing was established in 1996 to offer customers a comprehensive leasing service of ISO Intermodal Tank Containers. All business is controlled from our Head Office in the UK with a worldwide network of Agents

---

Providing:

- A full service support service for shippers, chemical providers, operators, food companies and logistics industries worldwide
- A quick and prompt response to all enquiries
- A growing and varied fleet of high specification equipment
- A range of equipment capacities for foodstuffs, chemicals and liquefied and refrigerant gases
- Flexible term contracts including lease purchase and competitive rates
- On-going new production build programme with standard and special equipment supplied to client exact specification and positioned to most locations worldwide
- Technical support in all areas as and when required
- Comprehensive Damage Protection insurance (if required)
- Agents and depot facilities worldwide

ACL is fully committed to providing each and every client with a high performance, efficient and quality driven Tank Container leasing service which we believe will meet and often exceed the customer's expectations. From standard equipment to special requirements, call us and we will do our utmost to cater for all your needs.